

Challenges in Transgender Individuals' Healthcare and Family Life: Social and Medical Aspects

2024

November

13–14

Vilnius

Organized by: VU Faculty of Medicine's Department of Educational Competencies and Faculty of Philosophy's
Department of Social Policy

Faculty of Medicine

Faculty of Philosophy

Programme

13 NOVEMBER

01:00–03:00 p.m.

Gender-affirming Care for Transgender Patients

The lecture/seminar will introduce key steps/practices for providing supportive medical services to transgender or non-binary patients. Registration here.

Room D1-16.2 a., Medical Science Center, Zaliuju ez. St. 2

06:00–08:00 p.m.

Parallel Perspectives

Two perspectives of understanding gender, meet at one common point. The seminar is intended for parents raising transgender children and non-governmental organizations dealing with transgender persons. Possibility to join online.

Room 201, VU Faculty of Philosophy, Universiteto St. 9

14 NOVEMBER

11:00 a.m.–12:30 p.m.

Undeterred

An open lecture for Social Policy students, other students and university community members are welcome.

Room 307, VU Faculty of Philosophy, Universiteto St. 9

03:00–04:30 p.m.

Undeterred

An open lecture for students of elective course Contemporary Motherhood/Fatherhood. Students from the whole university are welcome. Possibility to join online.

Room 302, VU Faculty of Philosophy, Universiteto St. 9

SPEAKERS

Jessica Lynn

Jessica Lynn (she/her/hers) is a world-renowned transgender advocate, educator, and activist. In the past several years, Jessica has traveled more than a million miles, visiting 28 countries and giving over twelve hundred presentations, helping to educate the general public about the transgender community.

Debi Jackson

Debi Jackson (she/her) is a passionate advocate for transgender youth. Debi actively engages with policymakers, educators, and community leaders around the world to advocate for transgender rights and is a founding member of the Human Rights Campaign's Parents for Transgender Equality Council.